COLUMBIA COLLEGE
HOLLYWOOD

To Whom It May Concern:

Jordan Smith is a student enrolled in good standing at Columbia College Hollywood. The student is currently taking a course where students must shoot their own projects. As the VP of Operations, I can attest that Jordan is well trained in both production and safety techniques, as well as having a deep level of respect for actors and crew on a set.

The College does cover $2 million in damage and liability, save a $2,500 deductible, which is the responsibility of the individual students, should the need arise. Per the guidelines of our College, this project is not being made for commercial profit of any kind, and as is the case with many student films, the project is being shot on a no-frills budget. Therefore, we hope you can give Jordan any aid possible. The title of the project is "THE SACRIFICE" and the scheduled shoot dates are August 1,2 & 3rd, 2020.

If you need further verification, please do not hesitate to contact me at polmstead@columbiacollege.edu

Sincerely,

Patrick Olmstead
VP, Operations

NOTICE OF STUDENT FILMING

We, the student filmmakers named below on this form, are planning to film a student production in your neighborhood. We are applying for all necessary permits and agree to maintain all legally-required liability insurance. Additionally, all personnel required to ensure public safety will be on location. We will abide by all County or City filming rules and any specific guidelines applicable to your neighborhood.

We will make every effort not to disturb you and will treat your neighborhood with the respect it deserves. Thank you in advance for your hospitality and cooperation while we are filming on your street.

When filming on-location in the County or City of Los Angeles, advance notice must be provided to all residents, merchants and/or businesses within a 500 foot radius of the filming location. Exceptional filming activities, such as simulated gunfire, may require us to notify a wider area.
